Lecturer
Computer Science/Mathematics

Penn State Harrisburg, School of Science, Engineering and Technology invites applications for a full-time, non-tenure track Lecturer position in Computer Science/Mathematics effective Fall Semester 2014. Successful candidates are expected to teach a broad range of undergraduate computer science courses, primarily service courses, as well as lower-level service math courses for a growing and dynamic program. In addition, all full-time faculty are expected to engage in scholarly activities, participate in University/College and professional service activities, and advise undergraduate students. A Ph.D. in Computer Science is required. Preference will be given to individuals who have demonstrated commitment to excellence in college teaching. Information about the College and the Program can be found at http://www.hbg.psu.edu and at http://www.cs.hbg.psu.edu. Excellent opportunity for re-funding.

Applicants should submit current curriculum vitae, copies of all undergraduate and graduate transcripts, three letters of reference, and a personal statement of teaching philosophy to: Computer Science/Mathematics Lecturer Search Committee, c/o Mrs. Dorothy J. Guy, Director of Human Resources, Penn State Harrisburg, Box: SET-40923, 777 W. Harrisburg Pike, Middletown, PA 17057-4898. Review of applications will begin on November 18, 2013, and will continue until the position is filled. Employment will require successful completion of background check(s) in accordance with University policies. Penn State is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity and the diversity of its workforce.